

Orcas Island Library

Tech Made Simple

Every Tuesday, 10am-noon

April Class Schedule

Tech Made Simple, Free Classes for the Non-Tech Savvy

April 11, Tech Made Simple- Smart Phones and Tablets. 10am to noon

- Smart phones- pros and cons
- Apple, Android and everything in between
- Wifi vs. Cellular connections
- Tablet or Laptop
- About syncing your photos, contacts, music

Tech Made Simple- classes for the 'non-tech savvy'. Offered for free to the community, everyone is welcome. Presented by RockTech Trainers, these interactive classes are fun and informative.

April 18, Tech Made Simple- Smart TV's 10am to noon

- Why do Smart TVs make me feel so dumb
- Deciphering and using TV remote controls
- Changing inputs on the TV
- Connecting devices to the TV
- Obscure settings and what to ignore
- 4K, 5K, 1080p ... what does it all mean?

"Smart" televisions are all the rage these days, but with all the choices out there, which one do I choose? The prices range from ridiculously cheap to incredibly expensive. In this seminar we will look at the what all the lingo means, how to assess our needs, make wise choices when purchasing and what to do when I get the monstrosity home.

Tech Made Simple- classes for the 'non-tech savvy'. Offered for free to the community, everyone is welcome. Presented by RockTech Trainers, these interactive classes are fun and informative

April 25 Tech Made Simple- Computer Basics 10am to noon

- Computer and technical terms made easy
- Storage vs. Memory
- Files and folders, where did it go
- Understanding the desktop pictures
- Helpful tutorials and resources

Computers are becoming more and more part of our day to day lives, and the technology seems to change on a daily basis. So how does one even get started? In this interactive class we will de-mystify the computer world. Build your confidence as you explore the technology that has invaded your life.

Tech Made Simple- classes for the 'non-tech savvy'. Offered for free to the community, everyone is welcome. Presented by RockTech Trainers, these interactive classes are fun and informative